the other one to the Dave Marks menagerie (Piers claims he is not a fan of lions), Harold shows up and says that Harold's menagerie has died and Harold wants to take Harold's lion. Dana doesn't understand why the menagerie died and doesn't want to help Harold, but Harold has a glass table with a mattress underneath it, which he says is very comfortable. Harold gets Piers and Dana on it and they both find it to be quite enjoyable. Later, Dana has another dream about the tigers who ate the elephants and Piers has a nightmare about them. Meanwhile, back in the menagerie, Don Driscoll takes Harold's baby lion, and an unidentified adult lion, to dinner. Harold says he can't remember how he got the lion, but Don thinks he might have just found him and brought him home. In Piers' nightmare, a killer tarantula is pursuing him, and Piers is trying to get the tarantula to stop eating him. Piers asks "Rendall" for help, but he doesn't think the tarantula will listen to him. He doesn't
